INTRODUCTION

The Kimberley Development Commission's Information Statement is made available as a standalone document and may be obtained from the Commission's Offices or on its website: www.kimberley.wa.gov.au

OUR PRIORITIES

The Commission has a strong and unified Vision.

The Kimberley aspires to a long-term future transformed into one of the world's most successful and sustainable regions. The hallmarks of the success will be:

People – A culturally vibrant, well-educated, and healthy people enjoying an exceptional lifestyle in thriving and sustainable communities.

Place – A place where Country is looked after and people find connection and meaning.

Prosperity – Shared prosperity arising from the success of modern and diversified industries including resources and energy, tourism, creative industries, agriculture, aquaculture, pastoral industries, and the services sector.

PURPOSE

To foster shared prosperity for all Kimberley people and to ensure WA Government decisions affecting our region are well-informed and effective.

Enabling Legislation and Policy

The Kimberley Development Commission is established as a Statutory Authority under the Regional Development Commissions Act 1993 (as amended).

Statutory Objectives and Functions

The Commission provides an integral component of a 'whole-of-government' approach to the requirements of regional development. By assisting in the co-ordination of responsibilities of a wide range of agencies having impact on regional development, the Commission is able to perform an important role in identifying needs and providing advice on the appropriate application of Government resources to the region.

As prescribed under Section 23(1) of the Regional Development Commissions Act, 1993, the objectives of the Commission are to:

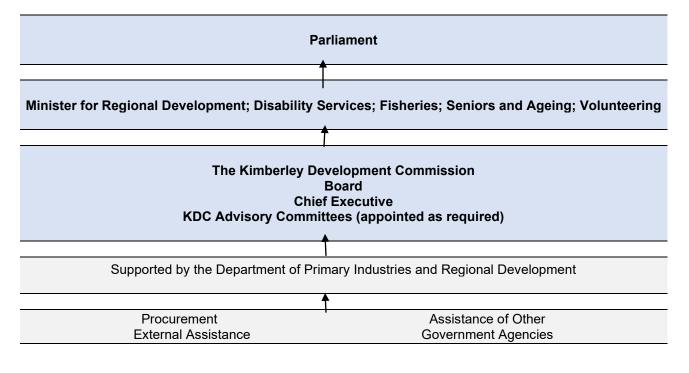

- maximise job creation and improve career opportunities in the region;
- develop and broaden the economic base of the region;

- identify infrastructure services to promote economic and social development within the region;
- provide information and advice to promote business development within the region;
- seek to ensure that the general standard of government services and access to those services in the region is comparable to that which applies in the metropolitan area; and,
- generally take steps to encourage, promote, facilitate and monitor the economic development in the region.

In order to meet its objectives, the Commission is to:

- promote the region;
- facilitate co-ordination between relevant statutory bodies and State Government agencies;
- cooperate with representatives of industry and commerce, employer and employee organisations, education and training institutions and other sections of the community within the region;
- identify the opportunities for investment in the region and encourage that investment;
- identify the infrastructure needs of the region and encourage the provision of that infrastructure in the region; and
- co-operate with:
 - a) Departments of the Public Service of the State and the Commonwealth, and other agencies, instrumentalities and statutory bodies of the State and Commonwealth; and
 - b) Local government authorities, in order to promote equitable delivery of services within the region.

KIMBERLEY DEVELOPMENT COMMISSION REPORTING STRUCTURE

Kimberley Development Commission Information Statement 2023

KIMBERLEY DEVELOPMENT COMMISSION BOARD AND STAFF

The Kimberley Development Commission Board is established under Sections 7, 15 & 16 of Regional Development Commissions Act 1993, and comprises the following membership:

- two members representing the regional community;
- two members representing Local Government;
- two members appointed at the Minister's discretion; and
- the Kimberley Development Commission's Chief Executive.

The Board is appointed by and responsible to the Minister for Regional Development. The Kimberley Development Commission is a Statutory Authority and advises the Minister on matters affecting the development of the region and sets the primary directions for the Commission.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR PUBLIC PARTICIPATION

The Kimberley Development Commission welcomes public input to assist in the formulation of policy and the performance of the agency's functions.

Members of the public with an interest in regional development, and particularly the development of the Kimberley region, are invited to contact Board members or Kimberley Development Commission staff to discuss relevant issues.

DOCUMENTS HELD BY THE KIMBERLEY DEVELOPMENT COMMISSION

To support its role in regional development, the Kimberley Development Commission maintains administrative and functional files. In addition it holds information from various sources including reports, studies, journals and research papers. The Freedom of Information Act 1992 provides for access to certain information held by the Commission.

Accessing Information under the Freedom of Information Act, 1992

Lodgment of Applications

Applications to access information, held by the Kimberley Development Commission, under the Freedom of Information Act, should be made in writing and forwarded to:

Freedom of Information Coordinator Kimberley Development Commission PO Box 620 KUNUNURRA WA 6743 Tel: 08 91482100

or delivered in person to the Freedom of Information Coordinator, Kimberley Development Commission, Kununurra office located at 7 Ebony Street, Kununurra.

Formal written applications should contain sufficient detail about the information required to enable relevant documents, that fall within the scope of the application, to be identified.

NOTICE OF DECISION

Once a written application for access to information under the Freedom of Information Act has been received, the Kimberley Development Commission will decide as soon as possible, within forty-five (45) calendar days, whether or not to grant access to the information requested.

It should be noted that some information is exempt under the Freedom of Information Act, 1992 and therefore access to it may not be granted.

Applicants will be notified of the Commission's decision in writing. In accordance with the Freedom of Information Act, this letter will include the following details:

- the day on which the decision was made;
- the name and designation of the officer who made the decision;
- whether or not access to the information will be granted;
- if access is refused, the reason for claiming the information or part thereof is exempt;
- any fees likely to be incurred;
- the applicants right to a review of the decision; and
- the review process in the event that access to information has been refused.

PERSONAL INFORMATION

In accordance with the Freedom of Information Act, a person has the right to have personal information amended in any document held by the Kimberley Development Commission, where that information is incorrect.

Formal application to have personal information amended must be made in writing to the Freedom of Information Coordinator and the correct information for the amendment provided.

Arrangements for Access to Information

Access to documents may be granted by way of inspection at one of the Kimberley Development Commission's offices or by provision of the information in an appropriate format, for example, a hard or electronic copy of a document.

Refusal of Access to Information

Applicants who are dissatisfied with a decision of the Kimberley Development Commission, regarding access to information, are entitled to ask for an internal review. Application for such a review should be made in writing within thirty (30) days of receiving the notice of decision. Applicants will be notified of the outcome of the review within fifteen (15) days.

If an applicant disagrees with the result of the internal review, then an application may be made to the Information Commission for an external review. An application for an external review must be made within sixty (60) days of receiving notice of the internal review decision.

FEES FOR ACCESSING INFORMATION

In accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 1992 and Regulations the Kimberley Development Commission charges the following fees for applications for information:
